2016 Presidential Debate – Kanye West(D) vs Donald Trump(R)

INT: DEBATE STAGE IN AUDITORIUM

It is the first Presidential debate of 2016. Kanye West is the Democratic Candidate for president, Donald Trump is the Republican candidate. Wolf Blitzer moderates.

WOLF

Welcome to the first presidential debate of 2016. I'm your host Wolf Blitzer. Our candidates tonight are the Republican nominee for President, Donald Trump, who has been a frontrunner since he started his campaign last year.

The Democratic nominee for president is Kanye West, who began his presidential campaign when Hillary Clinton was forced to end her run for president, after she interrupted a Trump town hall meeting and began screaming "All you people are idiots! Don't you see it?" and then had a nervous breakdown. Since then, Kanye West has surged in the polls, and won the support of the Democrats.

Honestly, I would moderate this debate for free, heck I would pay to watch this. Let's begin, the first question is for Donald Trump. If elected president what would you do to boost the economy?

TRUMP

Let me tell you something. The problem in this country is that we don't win anymore. We don't win economically or militarily, or Miss Universe. Our taxes are high and our women are ugly. I have a great tax plan. It is the greatest tax plan. People like it. People love it actually. Like they really love it. If I wasn't so rich, I'd like to bang it myself. That's how great my tax plan is.

WOLF

Now to you Mr. West, how would you improve the economy?

KANYE

You know Kim and I have flown economy. Economy is about reality. I am not controlled by the perception of reality. When I am president, everybody in the United States of America is going to get a pair of free Yeezy Boosts! That's seven hundred dollars they just saved. They can spend it on food or iTunes instead. I'm going to give people free ideas that move humanity forward, because I'm not selfish. And as far as Mr. Trump's tax plan...

(Raps to the tune of his song "To the World")

I'm just tryin to protect my stacks. Donald Trump don't pay no tax, Donald Trump don't pay no tax.

TRUMP

That's ridiculous. It just is. We speak English in this country, we don't rap.

WOLF (CHUCKLES)

We're really here everybody. Really. Pinch yourselves.

Ok, the next question for you Mr. West. There is a divide when it comes to race relations in this country, what would you do as President to heal that divide?

KANYE

When it comes to race we know there are a lot of racist people. Most white men over the age of 60 are racist.

(points to Trump)

But it's not going to last, because with all this ozone layer stuff, one day all of us will have to be black to survive the light from the sun. So I already got the upper hand.

WOLF

Just to clarify for our stupid audience, is there any science to prove what you just claimed about the sun?

KANYE

I don't have to prove nothing to you or nobody else. I am science. I am the sun. I am an enigma that lives and breathes every element of life.

WOLF

Thank you for clarifying, that makes more sense now. Same question, Mr. Trump, how would you fix race relations?

TRUMP

Quite frankly, I have a great relationship with the Blacks. They love me. They really do. And in case the sun gets too hot, I'll build a wall around the Earth, which I can do. I really can. By the way, we still have yet to see Kanye's birth certificate. How do we know he was born in Chicago? Kanye and Kenya are like the same word. It's true.

Kanye looks furious.

KANYE

(Raps to the tune of his song "Stronger") Work it, make it, do it,

Makes us harder, better, faster, stronger!

TRUMP

We don't speak rap in this country, we speak English!

KANYE

I don't even listen to rap! My apartment is too nice for rap!

WOLF

Unfortunately, we are at the last question for the night. How will you and your respective First Lady contribute to the betterment of the nation, and why should America vote for you? Mr. Trump?

TRUMP

Let me tell you something. First of all I am really smart, and my wife Melania is beautiful and really very smart. You couldn't have a more beautiful First Lady than Melania. My people are stupid and they love me. I'm like the Putin of the United States. And like Putin, I'm a winner. I'm going to make America great again, just like Russia.

WOLF

Mr. West?

Kanye walks to the middle of the stage.

KANYE

First of all stop acting like Kim isn't the most beautiful woman ever made. Beyoncé is the second most beautiful woman ever. Period. Kim is going to Instagram sexy selfies from the Oval Office and I'm going to change my title to Artist of the United States. Art is love, love is God, and God is a creator, just like me. So why wouldn't people vote for a God? The saddest part will be that I can't watch myself become President.

TRUMP

I'm sorry but I don't see it. Other people may think Kim is attractive, but she's not as beautiful as my daughter Ivanka, who is more my type than Kim. By the way, what happened to her lips? Why are they so huge?

Kanye is infuriated. He walks and stands right in front of Trump and gives him a menacing stare, and stays there. Trump looks back at Kanye defiantly and continuously shrugs.

TRUMP

Listen Kanye, you love me because you know I'm the best. Everybody knows it. You know it too.

KANYE

(raps to tune of his song "E.T")

"Imma disrobe you, then Imma probe
you. See I've abducted you so I'll tell you what to do..."

Hillary Clinton climbs on stage with a psychotic smile on her face.

HILLARY

All you people are idiots! Don't you see it?

WOLF

This went exactly as expected. Thanks to our candidates Kanye West and Donald Trump. And that concludes the first Presidential Debate of 2016.
Join us again next week when the candidates will have a lip sync battle debate on the issues of foreign policy. Good night.

SKETCH – PTA Meeting on Bigoted Tolerance

INT: HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA

At a small town, Texas high school, there is a PTA meeting addressing tolerance. The PTA President is Beth Kunkle.

BETH

Thanks to all the parents, teachers, and students who made it here tonight. As you know, lately we have been under fire because people think we're not tolerant, but that is definitely not the case. So tonight I just want to go over some issues that have been brought up. We are going to hear what happened straight from the horse's mouth. Of course I'm not call her a horse, she's too pretty. Come on up Ms. Jenny, and can you please tell us what happened yesterday? Youssef can you come here with "your-stuff" please. Get it? Youssef"... Your-stuff? I'm just kidding.

Youssef, a dark haired Arab looking boy, looks annoyed and walks up and stands next to Beth. He is holding a Volcano he made for his science class.

MS.JENNY

Hello yall. So yesterday, I saw Youssef in my math class, and he was holding this thing. I asked him what it was, and he said that he was going to mix up some ingredients, and then it would explode. I knew it was a bomb. I immediately called the Principal and security.

BETH

Now Youssef, can you tell us why you brought a bomb to school?

YUSSEF

It's not a bomb. It's a volcano project I made for the Science Fair. I told Ms. Jenny. She wouldn't listen. I told her I was going to mix baking soda and vinegar to make it erupt, not explode.

BETH

Aww, Ms. Jenny, I think you might have mistaken Youssef's science project for a bomb. Honest mistake?

MS.JENNY

Well yes. You can't blame me, he is Muslim, and with all the stuff happening in the world... He even wears a "T" for "terrorist" around his neck.

YUSSEF

It's not a "T", it's a cross. I'm Christian Ms. Jenny.

MS. JENNY

Wait, what? But I...

BETH

Well who would have known, God bless you Youssef? Not anyone's fault. Maybe you should wear a cross with Jesus on it, so people don't get confused. Ok so the next incident that happened, again Ms. Jenny, please tell us what happened with Kiera.

Kiera, African American girl, goes and stands next to Beth. She is holding her cell phone.

MS. JENNY

So, I was handing out graded tests and when I gave Kiera her test, she looked very very angry. Then she reached inside her jacket to pull out a gun! I screamed for security, and luckily they were right outside the classroom! They rushed in and pinned her down! Thank God! I was so scared, I thought she was going to shoot me. I thought I was going to die!

BETH

Now Kiera, you know it's against school policy to bring firearms to school. Those things stay at home next to the liquor cabinet.

KIERA

I did not have a gun. There was never a gun! Security tackled me for no reason. I WAS reaching for my cell phone! A cell phone!

BETH

But I don't understand Kiera, why would you angrily reach for a "cell phone"?

KIERA

I wanted to call my mom. She's a math professor. I wanted her to tutor me so I could get a better grade next time. I was angry at myself for slacking off and getting a "B". I always get straight A's. I was so disappointed. I have to make Honor Roll!

BETH

Ok, I see the confusion. Kiera I think you should make a safety announcement every time you take something out of your pockets. This way we're all comfy. Ms. Jenny, I think it was another honest mistake on your part. Right?

MS. JENNY

Well yes. I guess. I just thought. Well she looked so angry. And well she's...

KIERA

What?

BETH

So tall, she's just so tall for a freshman. OK now moving on. I'm glad we're doing this, we're clearing the air, making progress. So now we would like to show you the ideal student, the kind of student you should strive to be like. Ms. Jenny, you nominated a model student right?

Roger, a white boy, walks up next to Beth. He has a crazy look in his eyes, and an evil grin. Roger slyly lifts up his shirt every now and then to show off a bloody knife tucked into his pants.

MS. JENNY

Yes yes. I nominated Roger. He is the perfect student. He has average grades in all subjects, so he's not a threat to teachers. Nobody wants a student that asks too many questions. He rarely makes a fuss, actually I don't think I've ever heard him speak. Other than that time he said "I like skin". He is an angel. He looks non-threatening, and makes me feel comfortable and safe. I think all students can learn something from Roger.

ROGER

Y'all got purty skins.

BETH

Oh Roger, how sweet! Such a nice kid. So now that we cleared the air, I think we can all say that our school is very tolerant of diversity, and I think our teachers have a wonderful sense of non-judgement. Don't you?

Roger quickly grabs Ms. Jenny from behind, puts a knife to her throat, and begins dragging her away.

ROGER

She got real purty skin.

BETH

Oh Roger, what a clown this kid. So sweet!
